The Poet X by award-winning slam poet Elizabeth Acevedo

"An incredibly potent debut."
—Jason Reynolds, author of the National Book Award Finalist Ghost

“A story that will slam the power of poetry and love back into your heart.”
—Laurie Halse Anderson, author of Speak and Chains

*While supplies last.
“Linda Christensen addresses with new vigor and audacity what it means to read, write, and think as political action. Here, students and teachers escape the deadly monotony of ‘doing’ language as static rules and rigid conventions. Here, language comes alive so that young people are free to envision their role in the world as agents of change and consequential beings. This is, after all, what education for democracy should be about.”

—SONIA NIETO
on Reading, Writing, and Rising Up, 2nd Edition

More from Rethinking Schools at NCTE

“Breaking the Classroom-to-Prison Pipeline”

Join Rethinking Schools authors Linda Christensen and Dyan Watson to explore a literary lesson plan that talks back to the ways schools too often strip students, especially students of color, of their dignity and curiosity.
