PRESENTING AT 2022 ANNUAL CONVENTION

When will I know the date and time of my session?

NCTE will email presenters with additional information, including session date and time, in early summer. The general dates and times of the Convention are as follows (all times are local, which is Pacific Time):

Thursday: 9:00 a.m.–7:30 p.m.

Friday: 7:00 a.m.–9:00 p.m.

Saturday: 7:00 a.m.–8:00 p.m.

Sunday: 8:00 a.m.–1:30 p.m. Assembly on Literature for Adolescents of NCTE (ALAN) and Conference on English Leadership (CEL) programming begins Sunday afternoon.

Do I need to confirm my acceptance?

Yes. We will ask you to confirm your acceptance when we email you the date and time of your session in early summer. At that time, we will open the Speaker Portal, where you will accept your session and sign the Speaker Agreement.

It says my proposal will be part of a combined session. When will I find out more information, such as with whom I'm presenting?

We will share this information when we open the Speaker Portal in early summer. You will then be able to log in and see everyone who is on your session.

Will there be an opportunity to present virtually?

NCTE plans for all presenters to be required to attend in person in Anaheim, CA.

REGISTRATION

Am I required to register if I am on a session (e.g., as presenter or panelist)?

Yes, all attendees are required to register for NCTE's Annual Convention.

When will registration open, and how much is it to attend registration?

Registration for the 2022 Annual Convention will open in summer 2022. Rates will be announced when registration opens. For budgeting purposes, the 2019 Annual Convention, which occurred in person in Baltimore, had a rate of $310 for members ($275 early-bird for members).
