NCTE AUTHOR STRAND SESSIONS

FRIDAY, NOV. 21, 11:00 A.M.–12:15 P.M.

AS-F.01 NCTE Author Strand: Mentoring Youth Writers and Disruption through Design

Meet and learn from the authors of two new NCTE books: Wendy R. Williams shares strategies to bring out the author in every student from her book Mentoring Youth Writers: Six Strategies to Bring Out the Author in Every Student. Amber Warrington and Michelle Fowler-Amato share a new vision of professional learning from their forthcoming book Disruption through Design: Professional Learning That Empowers and Ignites Change.

Chair: Cathy Fleischer, Eastern Michigan University (emerita)

Presenters: Michelle Fowler-Amato, Old Dominion University

Amber Warrington, Boise State University

Wendy R. Williams, Arizona State University

NCTE AUTHOR STRAND SESSIONS

FRIDAY, NOV. 21, 3:30–4:45 P.M.

AS-J.01 NCTE Author Strand: Joyful Literacies in Secondary English Language Arts

In this session, teachers will explore ways to incorporate joyful literacies into their classrooms. By finding spaces for student engagement, teachers will discover how Joyful Literacies in Secondary English Language Arts offers students opportunities for analysis, research, synthesis, and evaluation through multimodality, pop culture, video games, and digital literacies.

Presenters: Christian Z. Goering, University of Arkansas

Megan Yates Grizzle, Farmington High School

Kathryn Hackett-Hill

Holly Sheppard Riesco, University of Arkansas

SATURDAY, NOV. 22, 1:15–2:30 P.M.

AS-N.01 NCTE Author Strand: Building Critical Literacy and Empathy with Graphic Novels

This session expands on the work presented in the book Building Critical Literacy and Empathy with Graphic Novels, including work in close reading and writing skills with high school students. Both practical applications from the classroom and theory will be shared.

Presenter: Jason D. DeHart, Wilkes Central High School
